

Parent and Family Engagement Under ESSA

Section 1116 (pgs. 68-73)

<https://legcounsel.house.gov/Comps/Elementary%20And%20Secondary%20Education%20Act%20Of%201965.pdf>

- I. Mandatory Reservation for Districts Receiving a Title I ALLOCATION of over $500,000:
 - Each district with over $500,000 shall reserve at least 1% to assist schools served by Title I to carry out activities described in Section 1116.
 - Parents and family members of children receiving services (parents of targeted students in targeted buildings and all students in schoolwide buildings) shall be involved in the decisions regarding how funds reserved are spent for parental involvement activities.
 - At least 90% percent of the funds reserved shall be distributed to schools receiving Title I funds with priority given to high-need schools.

II. USE OF FUNDS (This is an entirely new section of the law)

- Funds reserved shall be used to carry out activities and strategies consistent with the district's parent and family engagement policy, including at least one of the following:
 - (i) Supporting schools and nonprofit organizations in providing professional development for district and school personnel regarding parent and family engagement strategies, which may be provided jointly to teachers, principals, other school leaders, specialized instructional support personnel, paraprofessionals, early childhood educators, and parents and family members.
 - (ii) Supporting programs that reach parents and family members at home, in the community, and at school.
 - (iii) Disseminating information on best practices focused on parent and family engagement, especially best practices for increasing the engagement of economically disadvantaged parents and family members.
 - (iv) Collaborating, or providing subgrants to schools to enable such schools to collaborate, with community-based or other organizations or employers with a record of success in improving and increasing parent and family engagement.
 - (v) Engaging in any other activities and strategies that the local educational agency determines are appropriate and consistent with such agency's parent and family engagement policy.

III. BUILDING CAPACITY FOR INVOLVEMENT.—To ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school involved, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement, each school and a district receiving Title I funds -

1. shall provide assistance to parents of children served by the school or district, as appropriate, in understanding such topics as the challenging State academic standards, State and local academic assessments, the requirements of Title I, and how to monitor a child's progress and work with educators to improve the achievement of their children;
(This is should take place at the annual Title I meeting)

2. shall provide materials and training to help parents to work with their children to improve their children's achievement, such as literacy training and using technology (including education about the harms of copyright piracy), as appropriate, to foster parental involvement;
(This can take place at the annual Title I meeting and parent teacher meetings)
3. shall educate teachers, specialized instructional support personnel, principals, and other school leaders, and other staff, with the assistance of parents, in the value and utility of contributions of parents, and in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners, implement and coordinate parent programs, and build ties between parents and the school; (funds can be used for Foundational services or other professional development in this area)
4. shall, to the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinate and integrate parent involvement programs and activities with other Federal, State, and local programs, including public preschool programs, and conduct other activities, such as parent resource centers, that encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children;
5. shall ensure that information related to school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities is sent to the parents of participating children in a format and, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents can understand;
6. may involve parents in the development of training for teachers, principals, and other educators to improve the effectiveness of such training;
7. may provide necessary literacy training from funds received under this part if the district has exhausted all other reasonably available sources of funding for such training;
8. may pay reasonable and necessary expenses associated with local parental involvement activities, including transportation and child care costs, to enable parents to participate in school-related meetings and training sessions;
9. may train parents to enhance the involvement of other parents;
10. may arrange school meetings at a variety of times, or conduct in-home conferences between teachers or other educators, who work directly with participating children, with parents who are unable to attend such conferences at school, in order to maximize parental involvement and participation;
11. may adopt and implement model approaches to improving parental involvement;
12. may establish a districtwide parent advisory council to provide advice on all matters related to parental involvement in programs supported under this section;
13. may develop appropriate roles for community-based organizations and businesses in parent involvement activities; and
14. shall provide such other reasonable support for parental involvement activities under this section as parents may request.

IV. District Parent Involvement Policy

- A district may receive Title I funds ONLY if the district conducts outreach to ALL parents and family members and implements programs, activities, and procedures for the involvement of parents and family members in programs assisted under Title I consistent with Section 1116.

- Such programs, activities, and procedures shall be planned and implemented with meaningful consultation with parents of participating children (participating children = targeted children in targeted buildings and all children in schoolwide buildings)
- Each district receiving Title I funds shall develop jointly with, agree on with, and distribute to, parents and family members of participating children a written parent and family engagement policy.
- The policy shall establish the agency's expectations and objectives for meaningful parent and family involvement, and describe how the district will—
 1. Involve parents and family members in jointly developing the district plan Title I plan (submitted through IWAS prior to submitting ESSA consolidated application), and the development of support and improvement plans if a school in the district is designated as comprehensive (Tier IV) or targeted (Tier III) in the future.
 2. Provide the coordination, technical assistance, and other support necessary to assist and build the capacity of all participating schools within the district in planning and implementing effective parent and family involvement activities to improve student academic achievement and school performance, which may include meaningful consultation with employers, business leaders, and philanthropic organizations, or individuals with expertise in effectively engaging parents and family members in education;
 3. Coordinate and integrate parent and family engagement strategies under Title I with parent and family engagement strategies, to the extent feasible and appropriate, with other relevant Federal, State, and local laws and programs;
 4. Conduct, with the meaningful involvement of parents and family members, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of the parent and family engagement policy in improving the academic quality of all schools served by Title I, including identifying—
 - a. barriers to greater participation by parents in activities authorized by this section (with particular attention to parents who are economically disadvantaged, are disabled, have limited English proficiency, have limited literacy, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background);
 - (ii) the needs of parents and family members to assist with the learning of their children, including engaging with school personnel and teachers; and
 - (iii) strategies to support successful school and family interactions;*
 5. use the findings of such evaluation to design evidence-based strategies for more effective parental involvement, and to revise, if necessary, the parent and family engagement policies described in this section; and
 6. involve parents in the activities of the schools served by Title I, which may include establishing a parent advisory board comprised of a sufficient number and representative group of parents or family members served by the district to adequately represent the needs of the population served by such district for the purposes of developing, revising, and reviewing the parent and family engagement policy.

(This is not a new section of the law but they made additions; added language. The general principles remain the same - provide coordination, build capacity, conduct an evaluation, etc.)

V. SCHOOL POLICY INVOLVEMENT

- Each school receiving Title I funds shall convene an annual meeting, at a convenient time, to which all parents of participating children shall be invited and encouraged to attend, to inform parents of their school's participation under this part and to explain the requirements of Title I, and the right of the parents to be involved;
 - Timely information about programs under Title I
 - Description and explanation of the curriculum in use at the school, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the achievement levels of the challenging State academic standards; and
 - If requested by parents, opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children, and respond to any such suggestions as soon as practicably possible; and
 - If the schoolwide program plan under section 1114(b) is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, submit any parent comments on the plan when the school makes the plan available to the local educational agency.
- The school shall offer a flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning or evening, and may provide, with Title I funds, provide transportation, child care, or home visits, as such services relate to parental involvement;
- Involve parents, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of programs under Title I, including the planning, review, and improvement of the school parent and family engagement policy and the joint development of the schoolwide program plan under section 1114(b), except that if a school has in place a process for involving parents in the joint planning and design of the school's programs, the school may use that process, if such process includes an adequate representation of parents of participating children.

NOTE: If the district has a school district-level parent and family engagement policy that applies to all parents and family members in all schools served by the district, the district may amend that policy, if necessary, to meet the requirements above.

VI. PARENT COMPACT - SHARED RESPONSIBILITIES FOR HIGH STUDENT ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

- As a component of the school-level parent and family engagement policy, each school served by Title I, shall jointly develop with parents for all participating children a school-parent compact that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the State's high standards.
- Such compact shall—

1. Describe the school's responsibility to provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables Title I served students the children to meet the challenging State academic standards, and the ways in which each parent will be responsible for supporting their children's learning; volunteering in their child's classroom; and participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children and positive use of extra-curricular time; and
2. Address the importance of communication between teachers and parents on an ongoing basis through, at a minimum—
 - a. parent-teacher conferences in elementary schools, at least annually, during which the compact shall be discussed as the compact relates to the individual child's achievement;
 - b. frequent reports to parents on their children's progress;
 - c. reasonable access to staff, opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and observation of classroom activities; and
 - d. ensuring regular two-way, meaningful communication between family members and school staff, and, to the extent practicable, in a language that family members can understand.

Is your parent compact at the front or the back of your handbook?

VII. ACCESSIBILITY

- In carrying out the parent and family engagement requirements, districts and schools, to the extent practicable, shall provide opportunities for the informed participation of parents and family members (including parents and family members who have limited English proficiency, parents and family members with disabilities, and parents and family members of migratory children), including providing information and school reports in a format and, to the extent practicable, in a language such parents understand.
